GLYMPICS 2024 SPICY NIGHT COMPETITION!

Members of the Spic Committee have conjured a new Spicy Night Event starting this next 2024 Spicy Night. It's called: The Glympics Event of 2024. Where athletes will compete in endurance-heavy events with the threat of Olive-Torture (eating the spice) lurking for them if they fail. The winner of the competition will win the 2024 Spice Medallion and a grand prize of 10,000cT!

As of now, some candidates are in place. They've been training day & night for their chance at Gange Honor. The Candidates will compete in four main events:

SILLY RUN: a grueling back-and-forth run while being obnoxiously silly, first to complete 10 laps wins Gold.

STRAIGHT WRESTLING: a straight version of wrestling where two members compete to take the other down but WITHOUT using their hands.

ENGLISH PISS-F*CKING: a Gangeleon Sport where the goal is to tap the center of the opponents chest while dancing erratically. First to three wins.

CHARM-WRESTLING: all athletes must "rizz" each other up. First to laugh loses and has to do ten Burpies causing the round to end. At the end of each round, all athletes have to dance for a judge, whoever is ranked the worst loses and has to do ten - burpies causing the round to begin. But while the main round is ongoing, the two losers must wrestle violently on the sidelines for entry back into the game. Last man standing wins Gold.

The Spice Committee has confirmed that there will be a Gangeleon Services recognition Ceremony prior to the start of the event to commemorate the fallen Ganget, Derrick.

Though no one is sure how this ceremony will be conducted, it is assumed that Dani Burgers, the current GOAT Commander for Gangeleon Services, will give a speech.

Please note, that all of the aforementioned festivities pertaining to Spicy Night 2024 is subject to change by the Spice Committee. Neebo Times LLC will keep you posted on all new updates to the event!

In the meantime, please register to attend at this official link!

BANK OVERSPENDING!

According to a new report by the Minister of Finance, the Bank of the Gange spends an estimated 88% of its net income on GS & Tope Pay!

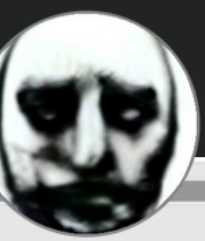

"The income for the [July] was significantly lower than usual. This may be due to the Inflation Act transferring responsibility of wage payments from simple currency production to complex redistribution from the Bank in an effort to reduce inflation. With the incorporation of the Neebo Times LLC by Culture Protection Services and the subsequent wages promised to their employees, the Bank of the Gange's already meager growth may be reduced even further; decreasing the likelihood that server officials can afford to pay for server changes." - REP01: Bank of the Gange Status Report by Vibbo Muntaloons.

In response to this report, the Premier was quoted as saying: "F*ck! I'm the richest motherf*cker around, I'm almost as rich as the bank! They'll tax my sh*t and I don't want to be taxed!"

However, a prominent member of the Charlie Party has criticized the Premier's uncouth response by saying: "He's a little b*tch."

NEEBO ECONOMY TRACKER

This graph showcases the total amount of times “!economy-stats” has been used to show the total amount of currency in the server for this month.

The economy has grown 14% since last month's reading, which concludes that policy has indeed stifled inflation to a significant degree. Surpassing the goal that was to reach rates below 20% by September. This bodes well for the server economy! It is nothing like how the quickly the line was rising in the previous chart in only a few months. If the inflationary rate was still 71%, the server would be inflated by 103,523 extra Ctouh!

Economists here at Dinkleman Prints still worry about the aforementioned issue of overspending. In the latest tax season, the bank ran its first deficit of -3,278cT!

History of Lenny Day!

Lenny the bird was a bird that passed away on August 6th, 2019. It was after a long day of walking around and being kids that Bela, Jean, Vibbo, Dani and Dani's brother Erick, discovered Lenny beside a metal fence at the local school.

Lenny appeared distraught and unable to fly! Oh no! Instantly, the friends rushed to the bird's side and tried to give it water and comfort. They assumed maybe it was hungry and bought it pumpkin seeds to no avail.

Alas, after only hours of being in their presence, Lenny sprawled out on the concrete, took a shit, and died.

The friends were in shock. Despite their efforts to save the poor bird, it just died. In an effort to commemorate the bird, the boys found an old sweater on the side of the road and wrapped the dead bird in it. As they took the bird to the woods to bury him, they decided to name him Lenny.

From that point on, they vowed to remember him.

But Lenny Day is more than just the memorial of some dead bird, its a reminder of the strength of the Friendship that is the foundation of the Gange.

It is the annual reminder that all members of the Gange are still friends and still hanging on. Though we may have lost touch with a couple members who were there on Lenny Day, we never lost sight of their love and their mission of Friendship. For they have passed the torch to us to carry in their honour.

Lenny Day is Gange Day.

History of Kid Comics!

YOUR AD HERE

Kid Comics was a Fourth Grade business venture started by Dani, Vibbo and Jangle.

"Twas a blessed experience." Recounts Vibbo Munts.

"Kids Comic was so cool, drawing my own little comics for just us to see was awesome." Says Dante Willi.

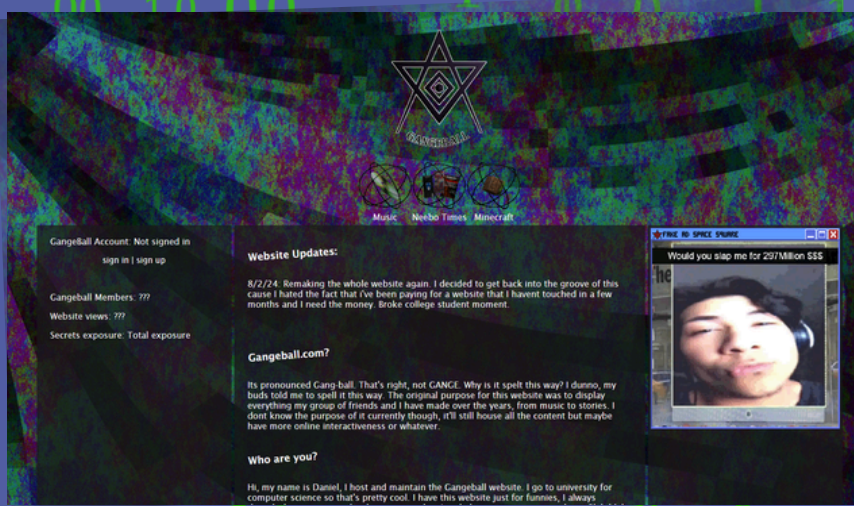

Vibbo Munts was most remembered for his written short-stories, namely The Boy in the Wild, a knock-off Hatchet. Dante Williams was famous for his Derpy Cat comic series and the Adventures series; always against the common enemy, Taco Inc. Meanwhile, Jangle was known for his Butter Cat comic, a slippery adaptation of Dante's Derpy Cat.

There is talk here at Neebo Times of a resurgence of the ancient Kid Comics fervor under a new, modern light.

One thing is for certain, Kid Comics was an intergal part of developing the bond between Jangle, Dante and Vibbo.

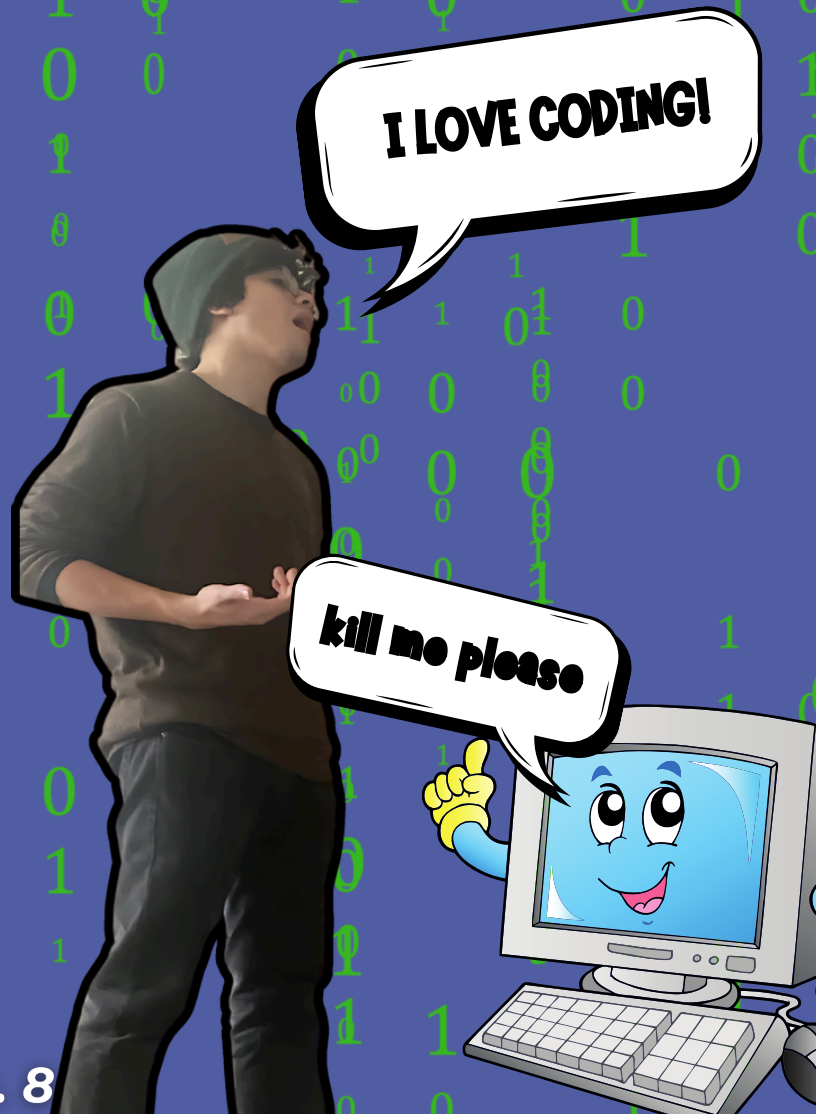

Dani's Gangeball.com Revamp!

Dani has taken an extra initiative on behalf of the Gange to revamp and beautify the Gangeball.com website!

A Neebo Times APP is currently in PRE-DESIGN!

"Making the website takes a lot of time despite me not really working on it everyday. Im unsure what i want it to be as forums seems like a lot of work but for some reason I want to connect the website with the bank. I dont know how i can even go about with doing this but it seems funny robbing the website and you can see the currency going down when you visit it lol. But yeah making the website takes a lot of time since I try my hardest making it visually 'pleasing' cause im actually spending money for this to stay up."

KEVINO MUSIC REVIEW

Written by Kevino Lorde
Song: "Noche No Te Vayas"
by: Los Tres Caballeros

Ong this thing fire, I listen to it omw to school.

Anyways,
time for the real review. Why this song? Did I not just explain that?? This Spanish song was created by the best trio my grandparents have heard. The special use of the requinto, a small form factor guitar made for melodies, is amazing, such high notes makes anyone imagine they are loved (you probably are loved but them lonely peeps ain't loved). Let's hope the night doesn't end cuz this song is fire mane. I would analyze the lyrics but I'd start crying so go listen to the song

ELECTIONS ENDED!

In a surprising turn of events,
the convicted member Vibbo
Muntaloons was elected Premier of the server. He appointed Kevino Lorde as his Retainer and Minister of Justice and promises to cut taxes, reduce spending and pass a new amendment!

BOOSTED TO LEVEL 3!

If you haven't seen already, the server was boosted to level three! The latest people to have boosted were: Lena & Aggo, lets give them thanks!

ROCK BAND KEVINO!

Written by Kevino Lorde

I, on August 4th 2024, performed for a small crowd at Hegewisch fest along with the band Last minute as their second guitarist. It was a very exciting opportunity and honest didn't feel as nervous as many would think one be about to performed to a bunch of random stranger but mostly family and friends. We started off with minimal problems we only had a hard time setting up the acoustic guitar. The show went well, we played some classic Beatles songs, along with other classics from Eric Clapton and most notably Mac Demarco. It wasn't until 10 minutes before we had to leave the stage, did we realize that we had to cut the set list down. We went from playing No other heart to Eres by cafe Tacvba and that's when disaster struck for me. My String Snapped and I had to think on my toes on how I will play with a missing string. I did manage though and the rest of our setlist went smoothly and no on noticed it snapped until I told everyone that my string snapped.

ROCK BAND KEVINO PART TWO!

Written by Kevino Lorde

Shepard's Fest. On August 18, I arrived before our allotted time and enjoyed some polish (I think) polkas. Set up was a bit slow since I had no power for my amp right before we played. Once again the start went smoothly but I can't deny that I was actually nervous this time since we had a much bigger crowd. While people weren't right below the stage, they still listened and looked directly at us. There was also a shawty that was bad asf. Once again though, we found time a problem for us as the next band was rushing us to get off stage. For our final songs we played Rosa pastel by bellanova and Layla by eric clapton with tired fingers. We ended wuite sad we couldn't finish our setlist because some crusty old men wanted to have their 1 hour of fame.
It was honesty my favprite experince since I saw so many people that both made me nervous and excited, soon on saturday August 31 I will be playing at the hegewisch farmers market and will enjoy myself playing.

JEAN DRIVES THE BOAT!

Jean has been OFFICIALLY driving the boat at her new job downtown! She helps orchestrate and manage funtime happy parties
onboard. Major props to Jean!

DANI CAMPING!

Written by Dani Burgas
The camping experience was pretty cool, lots of swimming and sitting around in the heat. Ofc its a lil sad since you're no longer able to accompany me these days, but regardless its fun despite this. I got bit a lot by mosquitos and went kayaking now that we actually have some.

NICPARTMENT?!

We have received word that Niccy has successfully bagged an APARTMENT!
Congratulations! Pictures will be revealed by Nic in the server soon!

MEET LENA!

Lena, Django's GF, has arrived in the server! She is an artist, schizomaniac bio-oppressive human theorist with much to offer the Gange! Let us give her a warm welcome!

RANKED & CERTIFIED!

Vibbo ranked up in August to E-2 (Airman) and was officially certified as a Command & Control Operator by the Installation Commander. Yay!

VIBBO ARRESTED FOR UNCONSTITUTIONAL BEHAVIOR!

On the first of September, during a routine Tax-Period run by then Minister of Economics, Vibbo Muntaloons, an unruly member began making it difficult for Vibbo to execute his duties. Thus, Vibbo and his coalition tried to illegally pass legislation that would punish such behavior. However, Vibbo did not account for his actions to be taken to the Gange Court! Former Premier, Dante Williams, dismissed the Minister of Justice, who supported Vibbo, and appointed himself Minister of Justice in order to prosecute Vibbo for the following charges:

1. Being Unconstitutional in violation of Sections I, II of the First Amendment and Section III of the Charlie Constitution.
2. Violation of CODO-03, the ban of Cultish Language.

Despite attempting to refute these charges, the Gange Council ultimately found him guilty and he was sentenced to a night in the Pissbaby Jail.

Some claim, however, that the entire process leading up to his imprisonment was rigged and showcased the high levels of corruption that exists within the Server Government. Is Premier Vibbo truly a criminal?
